

*New York
Sheet Music Society*

This is just a reminder that-
There will be NO newsletter for the month of December.

The next meeting of the New York Sheet Music Society is Saturday December 2nd, 2006

That's right- the 1st Saturday instead of the 2nd.
We hope to see you there for a wonderful program*.

*see reverse side of this card for program line-up.

Barbara Brussell in "Lerner in Love -The Lyrics of Alan Jay Lerner." Barbara has received raves for this show and for the award winning CD that accompanies it which will be available for purchase. An afternoon not to be missed!

JANUARY 13, 2007

Elliott Ames celebrates those grand hotel pianists of the past who brought a new sophistication to music in diningrooms and lounges. (Surely you remember Joey Bushkin, Charles DeForrest, Joe Derise, Hugh Shannon, Cy Walter et al.) They'll be honored by today's gifted hotel artists including Daryl Sherman (The Waldorf), Kathleen Landis & Nancy Winston (The Pierre) and from everywhere: Peter Minton, Steve Ross, Ronny Whyte, John Wallowitch and, schedule permitting, Irving Fields. And, oh, what stories they have to tell!

If your mailing label has "06" above your name, you need to renew your membership for 2006-07 season.

Local 802 – Musicians' Hall
322 West 48th Street.
Flea market 12:30
Program: 1:45 – 3:30PM.
